

Industrial Technology Institute
Ministry of Science, Technology &
Research

Certificate Course in Cosmetic Technology

Cosmetic industry is booming in the country that has open up entrepreneurship to new comers as never before but the knowledge gap need to be minimized by exposing to technology. This certificate course provides theoretical, practical and industrial visits, quality control techniques, regulatory requirement, designing of a small scale factory, machinery and supply chain management to run as a successful start-up.

- Extraction of natural products for cosmetics.
- 30 product technologies; Skin care, hair care, oral care and personal hygiene products.
- Formulation development, value addition & troubleshooting.
- Supply chain management including raw material identification.
- Raw material & Product preservation techniques.
- Quality control requirements and laboratory certifications.
- Factory layout design for small scale cosmetic industry.
- Machinery specifications for small scale cosmetic manufacturing facility.
- Regulatory requirement for new factory establishment.
- Industrial visits to expose to herbal & cosmetic manufacturing.

Target group: Healthcare professionals, university students, beauticians & entrepreneurs

Dates: Sundays from 09th of February 2025(14 days) from 9.00am to 4.00 pm.

Investment per person: Rs.200,000/= + TAX includes course materials, lunch and refreshments. In addition, a participation certificate will be issued to those who complete the course as recommended by Tertiary and Vocational Training Authority of Sri Lanka.

Venue: ITI Modern R&D Complex at Malabe

For more details please contact; Dr.Chandima Wijayasiriwardena (drchandima@iti.lk), Industrial Technology Institute, 503A, Halbarawa Gardens, Talahena, Malabe.

Tel: 011 2 379 800; Fax: 011 2 379848 / 011279848, Mobile: 0718609190(Whatsapp).